2- How to submit your application:

- Gather all application materials and create a GradApp account: <https://apply.grad.arizona.edu/users/login>
- Submit a Degree-Seeking application

Note: Entrance decisions are made based on many factors, including but not limited to:

1. GPA
2. The strength of the letter of intent and the letters of recommendation
3. Relevant work experience
4. Previous coursework taken

In many cases, students are recommended to start the program at UArizona as Non-Degree Seeking. This status is an opportunity for the student to demonstrate that they can meet UA academic requirements. The coursework, credits earned, and program length are the same for students who start Non-Degree Seeking as for those who start Degree-Seeking. If you are recommended for Non-Degree Seeking status, you will need to submit a Non-Degree Seeking application via GradApp: <https://apply.grad.arizona.edu/users/login>

Pathway to Degree Seeking from Non-Degree Seeking status:

Non-Degree Seeking students must earn a minimum 3.00 UArizona GPA in their first two semesters of UArizona-taught coursework to be granted Degree-Seeking status.

Once you are conditionally approved for Degree Seeking status by UArizona's Systems and Industrial Engineering Department, your original Degree Seeking application will be reactivated and reviewed again by UArizona's Graduate College for the transition to be final
