C. Teaching Innovation and Recognition

Describe any significant new course/program development, use of innovative pedagogical methods (e.g., simulations, blended learning, use of case study method), and list any teaching awards.

I actively contributed to the development of a Higher Diploma Program in Taxation, a strategic initiative funded by the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) aimed at strengthening tax education and capacity building in Jordan. As part of this project, I played a key role in designing and structuring the program's curriculum to align with international best practices and local regulatory needs. In addition, I developed a specialized course on Transfer Pricing, in close collaboration with international taxation experts, ensuring that the content reflected the latest OECD Guidelines and practical case studies relevant to developing countries.
